

The Old Standby

One dozen of the genuine JOHANN HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT gives as much strength and nourishment as a cake of ale, without being intoxicating. It is highly beneficial for use at meal time for convalescents, weak children and ladies, and as a general tonic for the weak and debilitated.

Insist upon the genuine JOHANN HOFF'S, which must have the signature of "JOHANN HOFF" on the neck label.

PITTSBURGH.

Schuyler N. Geddes, aged 33 years, died at the home of his parents on the Tunkhannock road, West Pittston, early yesterday morning after a lingering illness. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with services at the home. Interment will be made in the Truckville cemetery.

Richard Misset, of Oregon, who has been a resident of Pittston for the past thirty years, while preparing to retire last night was suddenly taken ill and in a few minutes expired. During the day he was in his usual good health and attended the funeral of his grandchild. Death was due to heart disease. He was aged 55 years, and leaves a wife, two sons Richard and Edward, and two daughters, Mrs. Duffy and Mrs. Patrick Egan, of Oregon, to mourn his loss. The funeral will occur Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment in Market Street cemetery.

The Pittston Steel Range company are rapidly getting their plant in shape for to begin work in conjunction with the manufacture of steel ranges which are fast gaining favor with housekeepers, they propose to manufacture cast iron stoves, casings, etc. With that object in view they have just received patterns for fifty-six complete stoves, ranges and heaters from Ironton, Iowa.

An explosion of gas in the twin shaft shortly before noon yesterday, seriously burned Jacob Slawinski, age 24 years, and Byron Romanski, age 19. They were taken to the hospital for treatment.

The rules granted by the Luzerne court Wednesday commanding Burgess Mahoney, of this place, to appear and show cause why attachments for contempt of court should not issue against him for not making returns to writs of certiorari as commanded by the court, are returnable tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The action is brought by Charles Broad & Co., merchants of Wilkes-Barre. Several days ago Bert Dymond, an employee, was arrested here and fined for peddling without a license. The Wilkes-Barre Times commenting on the affair says: Messrs. Broad & Co. have determined to test the validity of the Pittston ordinance under which the Burgess demands license for the sale of delivering their goods in Pittston. Several times their men have been arrested and put in the lockup in that place for peddling without a license, and in some instances delivery wagons have been looted while the men were imprisoned. Last week Broad & Co. sued, and obtained judgment in trespass against James Fitzpatrick, a heavy stable man, for the value of fruit taken from their wagon while it was detained in his barn and Broad's men locked up. Execution was issued yesterday upon this judgment, and officers came here yesterday and proceeded to levy, but Mr. Fitzpatrick stopped the proceedings by the payment of $5 and the costs. Actions are also being brought against the authorities of West Pittston borough for similar reason. It is quite likely that if the Messrs. Broad succeed in establishing the invalidity of the ordinance in question that heavy damage suits will be brought by the young men who have been imprisoned in the different borough lockups. In all these cases Broad & Co. have retained Paul J. Sherwood, who established a wide reputation by his success in similar cases brought against Plymouth borough. The firm is making a bold stand all along the line and the outcome of these cases will be watched with interest by merchants and peddlers throughout this entire section.

HONESDALE.

About 100 persons from along the Erie attended the kermess last evening. A special train was run from Port Jervis. The armory was packed with spectators. Much more enthusiasm was manifested than on some previous nights.

A few days ago a Honesdale young lady left her home in a hurry to do an errand. In her haste she hung her black shoulder cape on the bell handle. The long black ribbon hung down, the cape looked like a knot, and soon the report was spread that a member of the family was dead. The cape closely resembled crepe.

HALLSTEAD.

At our last term of court an application was made to annex a portion of Great Bend township to Hallstead borough. The court appointed C. A. Van Former, of Montrose, as auditor, to adjust the indebtedness between the township and the annexed portion, and he was attending to the duties of his appointment yesterday. The portion to be annexed comprises about thirty families and will add about 150 inhabitants to our borough.

Mrs. James Millard and son George were in Binghamton yesterday. Equines 91 and 127 are out of the show at Scranton and will be at their old homes in this place in a few days. Mrs. William Maynard, who has been visiting friends in the parlor city, has returned home.

MUSIC and Musicians.

The announcements in Philadelphia journals of an evening of music in which original works from Dr. Hugh Clarke, W. H. Gilchrist, Michael Cross and other well-known composers of that city were given, calls for an attempt to awaken enthusiasm and a taste for high-class compositions among Scranton musicians last winter. Through the efforts of the Scranton members of the State Music Teachers' association the composers above mentioned, with the exception of Cross were induced to visit this city and personally conduct the first presentation of original compositions. Dr. Clarke decided to present a new cantata entitled, "The Song of Deborah and Barak." Vocal parts were sent to Scranton in advance and members of musical societies were invited to take part in the formation of a chorus. Dr. Clarke came here with an orchestra of fifty pieces prepared to give Scranton music lovers something unusually fine. At the first rehearsal with orchestra, however, only sixteen vocalists could be induced to take part. The doctor withdrew his composition from the program and returned to Philadelphia in disgust. The Music Teachers' association, it is estimated, dropped four or five hundred dollars in the endeavor to arouse an interest in high class compositions by Pennsylvania artists, and it is probable that several seasons will elapse before another such opportunity is offered in a musical way in Scranton.

B. Davis, musical director at the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church, is making preparations for the presentation of the beautiful cantata, "Elizabeth," on June 12. Miss Sadie Kiser, the promising young Wilkes-Barre soprano, will assume the title role. The other characters are to be impersonated as follows: King Ahazuerus, Llew Herbert; Humam, John T. Watkins; Mordecai, David Stevens; Zerah, Miss Margaret Jones, of Bellevue. The cantata will be given at Music hall, and the soloists will be sustained by a large well drilled chorus, and an orchestra.

Hector James will sing at the Penn Avenue Baptist church tomorrow in the absence of Director John T. Watkins.

Carbonate amateurs talk of presenting "The Pirates of Penzance" in this city.

Miss Lizzie Webb, the well known pianist of Green Ridge, is sojourning at Colorado Springs.

Miss Draeger, of Warren, has been engaged as solo contralto at Elm Park church and will enter upon duty June 3.

Members of the choir at the Church of the Good Shepherd at Green Ridge are now attired in cap and gown. The change was brought about through the efforts of Miss Marshall, the organist and musical director.

St. Peter's choir, under direction of Professor Schilling, it is said, will soon produce an opera.

DOCTORS ENDORSE IT.

An Eminent Physician of Arkansas, tells of some remarkable cures of Consumption.

Stamp, La Fayette Co., Ark. Dear Sir—I will say this to you, that Consumption is a deadly disease in my family; some have already died with the disease. My wife has a sister, Mrs. E. A. Cleary, that was taken with Consumption. She used your "Golden Medical Discovery," and to the surprise of her many friends, she got well. My wife has also had hemorrhages from the lungs, and her sister insisted on her using the "Golden Medical Discovery." From the time she began to use it, and it relieved her, she had no symptoms of Consumption for the past six years. Having this disease can take no better remedy. Yours very truly, W. C. Rogers, M.D.

WHEN ALL ELSE FAILED.

Paine's Celery Compound Made Mrs. Leighton and Her Sister Well Again.

"O, I'm only a little nervous. I didn't use to be. 'What can I do to overcome it?' Just what a woman means by being a little nervous she can't exactly say. She tells you she is restless; that she can no longer sew or read; conversation no longer interests her; or it even troubles her; noises startle her, and she cries for no cause. Such are the first small beginnings of nervous weakness. The world is full of loving, patient wives and mothers who have been called upon to suffer intense emotional strain; have undertaken to nurse those dear to them through protracted illness, or have worked beyond their physical powers. During the many years of hard and wonderful work, Prof. Edward E. Paine, Dartmouth's great professor, had these weak, 'run down' women in mind. The study of such cases of nervous prostration, neuralgia, rheumatism, dyspepsia, and debility led him to the most marvelous discovery of the century. Paine's Celery Compound. Prof. Paine became convinced that the trouble in all these cases of weakness lay in a disturbance of nutrition. The cure lies in purer, richer blood and better fed nervous tissue. Paine's Celery Compound suits the executive organs, the liver and kidneys, to stronger action; the blood grows at once purer and redder and more capable of carrying nutriment and oxygen to every nerve and muscular fiber of the body. Paine's Celery Compound makes people well by building up new tissues in place of the old; regulating shakiness by appropriate nerve food and sending a strong, full tide of pure blood through the diseased parts of the liver, heart, stomach, and kidneys. To worried women, just as to business men staggering under financial adversity, come nervousness and final breakdown. 'I am not fit enough to take medicine,' she too often says, and puts off from day to day the correction of her trouble. Paine's Celery Compound is the great spring medicine. It cures every form of nervous weakness and the special disorders of liver, heart, stomach, and kidneys that arise from impure blood and a 'run down' system badly nourished. These are the difficulties that Paine's Celery Compound cures. It builds up the whole body, blood nerves and tissues in a way that nothing else has ever equalled. People get well who thought they could not, and thoroughly try it. For rheumatism it is the one true specific. Prof. F. A. Leighton is instructor and superintendent of the state dairy school at the Iowa state agricultural college at Ames, Ia. He has been there several years and is well known throughout that state. His wife, writing to Wells, Richardson & Co. who now prepare Paine's Celery Compound, says: 'Last May I had rheumatism so severely that I could only get around by the aid of crutches. Nothing that I used did me any good, and I despaired of regaining my health. A friend recommended Paine's Celery Compound to me and I used it regularly for two months. As a result, I was able to visit the world's fair, staying there quite a while and walking all day without any difficulty. 'The compound also did my sister a great deal of good while attending college giving her strength and health. There is nothing I know of in the world that is its equal for building up the weak and run-down, and giving strength and tone to the system. I am better for years, and ascribe my improvement wholly to the use of Paine's Celery Compound. This is one of thousands of similar testimonials that Paine's Celery Compound is the remedy that makes people well.
